

Amnesty International Report - 2021
1. executive summary
2. apartheid in international law
3. intent to oppress and dominate palestinians
4. territorial fragmentation and legal segregation
5 . legal segregation and control
6. denial of nationality, residence and family life
7. disruption of family life
8. restrictions on movement
9. use of military rule to control and dispossess
10. dispossession of land and property
11. restrictions on right to political participation
12. discriminatory zoning and planning policies
13. suppression of palestinians' human development
14. a system of apartheid
15. crimes against humanity
16. forcible transfers
17. administrative detention, torture and other ill-treatment
18. unlawful killings and serious injuries
19. denial of basic rights and freedoms, and persecution
20. security considerations and intent to oppress and dominate
21. conclusion and recommendations